

Making Dreams A Reality

Introducing Butterfield's

2016 Scholarship Recipients

KAI O'DOHERTY

SIR A. DUDLEY SPURLING
POSTGRADUATE SCHOLAR
$25,000

Kai recently graduated from McGill University in Canada where he attained his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science and International Development Studies. He is currently enrolled at the University of Edinburgh where he plans to gain an MSc in Comparative Public Policy. He plans to use his degree to work in Bermuda as a social policy advocate and analyst with a focus on human rights issues and the improvement of social services with the hope of leading important, long-lasting, equitable change in Bermuda.

MAHA CLARKE

SIR HARRY D. BUTTERFIELD
UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLAR
$25,000

Maha graduated from Warwick Academy this year and is currently enrolled at Queens University of Charlotte in North Carolina where she plans to gain an undergraduate degree in Business and International Relations. Her plan is to then follow on with their Master's Programme for a degree in International Business, and eventually move on to Law School. Following her degree, she aims to carve out a career as a lawyer in the International Business arena and give back to her community whilst supporting the Bermuda Hockey Federation.

Congratulations and good luck to our 2016 recipients
