Introducing Butterfield's 2019 Sir Harry D. Butterfield Undergraduate Recipient

SADIA WILSON BUTTERFIELD UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT $25,000

The Sir Harry D. Butterfield Undergraduate Scholarship is awarded to a Bermudian student commencing, or already pursuing, a degree overseas at an accredited university. This Scholarship has been offered every year since 1978 in honour of Butterfield's late Chairman, former Rhodes Scholar, Sir Harry D. Butterfield, whose distinguished career in public and business life was dedicated to the betterment of Bermuda and Bermudians. The award has an annual value of $25,000, tenable for up to four years.

The 2019 recipient, Sadia Wilson, is currently enrolled at the University of Bristol where she is pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in cellular molecular medicine. Sadia hopes to become a dental surgeon to help combat poor dental hygiene and the resulting oral ailments. In addition to her academic achievements, Sadia is a passionate gymnast, and has won many medals for Bermuda and England. "I am applying the same drive to working towards becoming a dental surgeon that I have successfully applied to becoming an elite gymnast."

Congratulations Sadia. We wish you the best of luck over the coming years.
